

Canine Behavior Academy

Offered by the Marin Humane Society's Behavior & Training Department

A weekly class for busy people who would like to become professionals in the dog training world or just want to learn more about the animals that accompany us through our lives.

This academy stresses practical information delivered in a relaxed but engaging atmosphere. Classes will include lecture, video and demonstrations with dogs. Student's dogs are welcome to attend most classes.

The syllabus includes the basics of: canine ethology, social theory, body language, behavior evaluating basics, safe handling, learning theory, equipment usage, training exercises, behavior problems, behavior modification techniques, and beginning level consulting.

The academy is 12 weeks, Saturdays 1—4PM, January 30—May 1, 2010. Skip dates are 2/13 and 2/27. The chief instructor is Trish King, Director of Behavior & Training at the Marin Humane Society.

Cost is $650 for 12 weeks. A non-refundable deposit of $100 is required to reserve a spot. Balance is due no later than January 27.
